IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Contributions resulting from a rollover to another state's Section 529 Plan, Coverdell Education Savings Account, Series EE or I Bond deposits must be accompanied by a NextGen Incoming Rollover Form. To obtain this form, log into your account at merrilledge.com.

¹ Contribution Limit: The aggregate NextGen account balance limit is $400,000, effective January 1, 2014, per Designated Beneficiary (subject to adjustments periodically).

² Third Party Contributions: Persons other than the account owner who make contributions will have no subsequent control over the funds contributed to a NextGen account. Only the NextGen account owner will receive confirmation of account transactions and may direct transfers, rollovers, investment changes, withdrawals and change the account beneficiary (as permitted under federal law). Third party contributors may subject NextGen account owners to tax consequences. NextGen account owners and third party contributors should consult their tax advisors to discuss income or gift tax consequences.

The NextGen Plan is a Section 529 plan administered by the Finance Authority of Maine. Before you invest in the NextGen Plan, request a NextGen College Investing Plan Program Description and Participation Agreement from us and read it carefully. The Program Description contains more complete information, including investment objectives, charges, expenses and risks of investing in the NextGen Plan, which you should carefully consider before investing. You also should consider whether your home state or your designated beneficiary's home state offers any state tax or other benefits that are only available for investments in such state's 529 plan. Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated is the program manager, underwriter and distributor for the NextGen Plan.
